

Abraham Lincoln Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Next Sunday, May 1, 2011: Social Justice Sunday

 HAPPENING TODAY ***

There will be an Easter Egg Hunt on the west lawn after the service (weather permitting!). All children up to age 12 may join in the fun. There will be three groups, divided by ages: 0 - 4; 5 - 8; 9 - 12. This event is sponsored by the family of Ginger Huettemann in her honor.

Please see Rev. Martin Woulfe ASAP to have a new or updated photo taken for the 2011-2012 Member/Friend Directory –or e-mail a photo (and any changes in your address or contact information to minister@aluuc.org). The deadline is April 17.

Thank you to everyone at ALUUC for a fabulous pledge drive. We are currently over $170,000, our largest pledge drive ever! We are thankful for everyone who helped with the canvasser party, every canvasser and everyone who pledged. ALUUC is truly a home for all of us, and it's gratifying to know so many of you feel the same. Canvassers who have not yet turned in cards, please contact Victoria soon so we can plan for the Annual Meeting on June 5th. Carol Kneeder and Victoria Vincent, Pledge Drive Co-Chairs.

 COMING SOON ***

The Humanist Discussion Group will meet Monday, April 25 at 7 pm in the ALUUC Sanctuary. James Custer will review the book Religious Literacy: What Every American Needs to Know – and Doesn't (by Stephen Prothero). Although the US is the “most religious” Western nation, Americans generally know little about the history of their own personal religion or other major world religions. <http://www.time.com/time/magazine/article/0,9171,1601845,00.html>. Contact Carol Floyd at HumanistGroup@aluuc.org for more information.

There's still time to register for and attend the Midwest District Assembly in Bloomington on April 29-30, 2011. Register online at regonline.com/DA2011.

Epicure? Foodie? Or just love to cook or eat? Join us for the first meeting the new “foodie” covenant group on May 12th at the home of Pat Goller and Randy Pratt. We begin at 6:00 p.m. by choosing a name for the group. At this meeting, members will also focus on favorite cooking utensils...new or inherited. We will meet one time monthly to explore and discuss food related topics of interest to members. One project per quarter will have the group doing service to the congregation or community. Questions? Contact Pat at 787-0687.

Yoga Yoga Yoga!! We are launching the promised Yoga class at 8:00 am on Saturday, April 30th at ALUUC in the Commons area until 9:20 am. Future classes will be based on the response.

The class will be suitable for beginners as well as more experienced participants. Bring a yoga-mat if you have one, if not something suitable for floor exercise. Wear comfortable clothing. Men and women welcome. If you have any questions call Renata 217-585-1944 or Linda Kopecky at 217-529-3235. SEE YOU !!!!!

Now Available: Name Tag Holders with clips rather than pins. If you would like a new holder, please drop off your current name tag with Susan Solon.

This month's Movie Night (The King's Speech), scheduled for April 17, has been postponed until May 1st.

Comedians & Spirituality in Cinema: Rev. Woulfe will conduct this adult enrichment series beginning Wednesday, May 4th and continuing for five more consecutive Wednesdays. During each class, a movie featuring a strong religious theme and starring a well known comedian will be viewed, followed by discussion. Please sign up on the sheet posted by the drinking fountain.
