

Aesthetics Committee Policy

Debby Hagan, appointed chair of the ALUUC Aesthetics Committee proposes the following:

I propose a 5-members of the Committee consisting of the following persons: Deborah Hagan, Nancy Ray, Gwen Childs, Victoria Vincent, and Anna Williams. If the Mission and Process is approved by the Board, we will publicize the existence of the Committee and the process by which persons can bring forth their requests.

The mission of the Committee is to ensure that the ALUUC buildings and grounds are aesthetically pleasing and maintain their functionality.

Using principles of good design, the Committee will work to protect and enhance the beauty of our facilities and grounds. The Committee will strive to make the best use of the facilities within the space limitations.

The goal of the Committee is to satisfy the practical needs and the aesthetic sensibilities of all the groups who share our congregational home.

ISSUES TO BE BROUGHT TO THE COMMITTEE:

The issues to be brought to the Committee include, but are not limited to, the following:

- *approval and placement of art, posters, signs, bulletin boards and tables,
- *approval and placement of banners,
- *approval and placement of seasonal decorations,
- *approval of methods for attaching items to the walls and doors,
- *approval of furniture donations/purchases for placement in the facility,
- *approval of storage options,
- *approval of any structural change or attachment to the facility,
- *approval of any interior or exterior finishes,
- *approval of any landscaping or exterior improvements.

PROCESS FOR CHOOSING THE COMMITTEE:

The Committee shall consist of 5 members. The President shall appoint the Chair of the Committee. The Chair shall choose the other members of the committee. The 5 members shall all be voting members.

PROCESS FOR BRINGING AN ISSUE TO THE COMMITTEE:

Any person wishing to amend the facilities structure and grounds in one of the ways enumerated above, must bring the proposal to the Committee for review and a vote. The Committee will meet once a month at which time the proposal can be presented, reviewed, and voted upon. If the Committee denies the proposal, the person bringing forward the proposal may appeal the decision to the Board at the Board's next monthly meeting.

Approved by the Board of Directors on 5 June 2007
