

Announcements for Sunday, July 16, 2017
Abraham Lincoln Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Next Sunday's service is "The Sisyphus Effect" by Thom Thomas.

Happening Today

Rev. Woulfe's Summer Hours - Vacation: July 10 – August 1. Any pastoral concerns during his absence should be directed to Delinda Chapman or Jodi Perko.

Coffee Hour – Every Sunday after service! Join us every Sunday morning after the service for coffee (or tea, or lemonade) and conversation. We need a hand or two in our kitchen for Coffee Hour. This includes making the coffee, setting out a few tables and food donations, and cleaning up. If you're interested in helping out on a Sunday, please contact Marissa DeWeese at email@aluuc.org.

Eco Camp Reminder: All prefects who did not attend last Sunday's training should attend the training this Sunday – TODAY, 3-5pm.

Reservations are required when you plan to use the church for a meeting or other activity. Call or email Office Manager Cheryl Wycoff office@aluuc.org to make your reservation.

Coming Soon

ECO CAMP: We will need volunteers to help with setup on Sunday, July 23 - after Sunday Services, for Hogsmead on Friday afternoon - July 28, and for tear-down after camp is over - starting at 3:30 p.m. on Friday afternoon.

Humanist Group: On July 24 at 7:00 pm at ALUUC, Carol Floyd will lead the Humanist Group's book discussion on Stumbling on Happiness by Daniel Gilbert. "Bringing to life scientific research in psychology, cognitive neuroscience, philosophy, and behavioral economics, this bestselling book reveals what scientists have discovered about the uniquely human ability to imagine the future, and about our capacity to predict how much we will like it when we get there....Why do pigeons seem to have such excellent aim; why can't we remember one song while listening to another; and why does the line at the grocery store always slow down the moment we join it? In this brilliant, witty, and accessible book, renowned Harvard psychologist Daniel Gilbert describes the foibles of imagination and illusions of foresight that cause each of us to misconceive our tomorrows and misestimate our satisfactions. With penetrating insight and sparkling prose, Gilbert explains why we seem to know so little about the hearts and minds of the people we are about to become." – Amazon Book Reviews. For more information, contact Sarah Iaiennaro at humanistgroup@aluuc.org.

DATE SAVER: September 6, 7pm, Roy Zimmerman will perform "ReZist, Funny Songs about Peace and Justice". ReZist is ninety minutes of Roy Zimmerman's original songs, a funny and forceful affirmation of Peace and Social Justice. "Sometimes I think satire is the most hopeful and heartfelt form of expression,” says Roy, “because in calling out the world's absurdities and laughing in their face, I'm affirming the real possibility for change.” Roy’s songs have been heard on HBO and Showtime. He's shared stages with Bill Maher, Robin Williams, Ellen DeGeneres, John Oliver, Kate Clinton and George Carlin. He's been profiled on NPR's "All Things Considered," and he's a featured blogger for the Huffington Post.
