

Announcements for Sunday, July 7, 2019
Abraham Lincoln Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Next Sunday's service is "Implicit Bias: Where Did That Come From?" by Jonna Cooley.

Happening Today

In response to the January program survey results, we invite you to greet only those nearest you during the service, and greet others during the social hour. After the service, please leave your hymnals on the front row chairs to prevent congestion at the entry doorway.

Change 4 Change, - Thanks for your most needed generosity. TODAY: The Outlet was founded in 2004 in Central Illinois. "It is our mission to help young fatherless youth ages (8-22) develop the ability and skill to be capable of making responsible life decisions, holding real and meaningful spiritual values, explore their gifts, talents, and realizing their dreams and aspirations. We will raise up quality leaders who will serve their generation and those to come. We welcome all brothers regardless of race, creed, color, or religious affiliation. <https://theoutletillinois.org/about-us/> Please make checks to ALUUC with The Outlet noted.

Tonight is Movie Night! The Man Who Killed Don Quixote, Sunday, July 7, 5:00 pm
"Toby (Adam Driver), a disillusioned film director, becomes pulled into a world of time-jumping fantasy when a Spanish cobbler, Javier (Jonathan Pryce), believes him to be Sancho Panza. He gradually becomes unable to tell dreams from reality." 2 hours, 13 minutes. Ages 15+ (via commonsensemedia.org). Popcorn will be provided, along with subtitles for those with hearing disabilities.

Please remember to turn off lights and restore the thermostat when you're the last one to leave. Lights are frequently left on in the hallway and sometimes in the kitchen.

Your flower orders are always appreciated and there are openings available for July. Please note the increased price of $25 this year, which will provide a very nice arrangement.

Coming Soon

The News Group will meet Thursday, July 11 at 7:00 pm in the Channing Room. We have moved the date from the first Thursday because of the 4th of July celebration. Please join us in an open discussion of events in the national, state or local news. If you have questions contact Frank Kopecky or Kurt DeWeese.

Covenant Groups are a great way to get to know other ALUUC members in a group that values listening and deep sharing on a variety of chosen topics. Participants commit to meet regularly: twice a month for about two hours each meeting. You can sign up for the next set of Covenant Groups that will start meeting in September. There will be an informational open house this fall. To learn more, visit <http://www.aluuc.org/aluuc-covenant-groups>, contact Stu Jacobson, or email covenantgroups@aluuc.org.

Eco Camp Kick Off Party - July 13, 2019, 4-8pm, Kent and Gwen Childs' home (15 Forest Ridge, Springfield, IL 62712)

Let's give Eco Camp 2019 a fun start with a barbecue and pool party on Saturday, July 13, from 4 pm to 8 pm at Kent and Gwen Childs' home. We will be providing the hotdogs and hamburgers (and the fixin's) and tea and lemonade. You are welcome to bring a side dish to share, and other beverages. The Kick-Off is open to everyone, including camper families.

Introducing an exciting new way for kids to get up close and personal with pollinators, such as honey bees and butterflies, and have fun learning in the process! The museum's new exhibit, Bees, Butterflies & Blooms, is now open and will run all summer though early August. The exhibit includes an observation beehive, live butterfly enclosure, pollinator garden and many family-friendly play stations. In addition to checking out the live bees and butterflies, kids also have the opportunity to try on a beekeeper suit, make a robotic butterfly move and do the waggle dance like a honey bee, among numerous other learning activities. Admission: varies. Contact: 217-971-4435, Website: kidzeum.org/
