

April Quote

“In the spring,
at the end of the day,
you should smell like dirt.”

— Margaret Atwood

Life Before and After Exoneration: The Impact of Wrongful Conviction on the Innocent

Larry Golden and Teshome Campbell

The Illinois Innocence Project has focused on obtaining release of innocent people from long-term incarceration. But how does that wrongful conviction and ultimate release impact on those individuals? The Project's latest exoneree, Teshome Campbell, who spent 18 years in prison, although innocent, will join Founding Director Larry Golden to share some thoughts on this critical challenge.

Pledge Drive Sunday. This will be a “Change for Change” Sunday.

After Spong

Rev. Martin Woulfe

Rev. John Shelby Spong will have spoken at ALUUC and the UU Church of Peoria on April 9. What was his message? How was it received? In which ways are his theological understanding of Christianity compatible with modern UUism?

A group photo of all members and friends will be taken following the service. Please attend if at all possible.

Parts of Woodside Road west of ALUUC will be closed for construction starting April 11 — please plan your route accordingly. Read more at SJ-R.com...

The Poetry & Spirituality of Vachel Lindsay

Rev. Martin Woulfe

Rev. Woulfe became aware of Vachel Lindsay's work probably much later than most Springfield natives, but has acquired an appreciation for his poetry. Rev. Woulfe will share some insights and poetry from Springfield's second most famous son, much of which expresses spirituality.

Potluck Sunday—please bring a dish to share after the service!
