What to do when you don't know what else to do, by Rachell Anderson

Former congregant Rachell Anderson will talk about how it has gone since her retirement in Mississippi and how her UU principles have guided her along the way in this screwed up, messed up political climate. Rachell is working on Book #11, a memoir about herself. A great storyteller, Rachell will share some stories from it. This will be a "Change for Change" Sunday, contributions will go to Compass After School Program.

Creating Friendship Around the World, by Michael & Sandy Brewer

Michael and Sandy Brewer and their daughter, Careyana Brenham, will speak about their not for profit organization, International Assist Medical Missions (IAMM). This group of health care providers and volunteers do short term medical mission trips to Africa, Haiti and Nicaragua with the aim to reach beyond the cultural, racial and religious barriers that prevent us from seeing that underneath all that "stuff," we are all just people who need people.

Compass After-School Program for homeless and low-income children

by Molly Berendt, Director of Compass

Compass is a free after-school program for homeless and low-income students of Springfield District 186. The program includes academics, life skills, and a healthy dinner served family style. Compass also runs a summer camp. The program is supported by volunteers from 25 community partners and serves seven schools.

Eco Camp 2016 Graduation, by the EcoCamp Campers & Staff

Join us for this special intergenerational Eco Camp Graduation Service. We will recap a week's worth of ALUUC's Harry Potter themed ecology camp classes, activities, learning and fun. Campers will display projects and artwork created over the week, sing songs, and will be honored with certificates in a special graduation ceremony. Campers, parents, and family won't want to miss this exciting service!

Radical Hospitality, by Rev. Marcia Curtis

Jesus was a social revolutionary in his practice of radical hospitality. He ate with and healed the social outcasts of his day—prostitutes, tax collectors, lepers. The root word for hospitality means generous, caring, sustaining. Our first principle, respect for the inherent worth and dignity of every individual, calls us to a practice of radical hospitality today, and like Jesus, we are called to do it with the outcasts of our society. Rev. Curtis is on the Steering Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Prison Ministry of Illinois.

This will be a "Change for Change" Sunday.
