Patriot - Patriotic - Patriotism

Penny Wollan-Kriel

As Independence Day approaches, let us look at what it means or might mean to be a patriot – or patriotic – or express patriotism. Penny Wollan-Kriel will coordinate the service.

“Change for Change” Sunday collection for UUA Chalice Lighters, a UU grant program.

The First Amendment in the Reign of Trump

Don Hanrahan, President, ACLU Springfield Chapter

Trump promised to “loosen up” libel laws against the press. He stated that those who exercise free speech by burning the flag ought to be stripped of citizenship and jailed. He promises to allow discrimination under the cloak of religious liberty. What issues does this raise for the preservation of our republic? What can we do to fight back?

Keeping them honest in an age of skepticism

Bernie Schoenberg, SJ-R Political Columnist

A key part of being a reporter covering politics is comparing campaign promises to actions, and statements to reality. That’s always been difficult, but in an age of social media and seemingly constant campaigning, it gets even more challenging. The answer? Keep at it.

The Sisyphus Effect

Thom Thomas, Seminarian

There is an old Chinese curse that goes: “may you live in interesting times.” How many marches have you attended since January 20th? How many petitions have you signed? How many phone calls have you made? How can you possibly keep going, and for how long?

Please stay after the service to help us set up for Eco Camp, our free ecology camp for children which take place from July 24-28.
