Our Flower Communion

Rev. Martin Woulfe

One of the cherished traditions of UU congregations is the annual celebration of a Flower Communion – an opportunity to mark the arrival of summer but also an opportunity to reflect on the many spiritual gifts given & received during the previous year.

This service will include 1-2 Credo Statements by our Senior Youth.

“Change for Change” Sunday collection.

The Never-Ending Story

What is the essence of our faith, and what are its priorities? Do these remain relatively static, or are there signs of sea changes? What might the liberal religious movement of tomorrow look like?

This service will include 1-2 Credo Statements by our Senior Youth and a ritual of farewell for our departing intern, Paula Brayden.

The Annual Meeting will immediately follow the service.

Those members whom have been members for longer than 90 days can vote.

UUA Presidential Candidate Forum

During this summer’s General Assembly, congregations and their delegates will have the opportunity to vote for the next UUA President. This year’s election marks two distinct breaks with the past: firstly, the next President will serve for a six year singular term and secondly, we will have our first woman President! The three candidates are: the Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray, the Rev. Alison Miller, and the Rev. Jeanne Pupke. In this service, we will learn more about each candidate and the congregation will be polled to determine who will receive our votes. Don’t miss this historic event!

Women’s Health Care in a Time of Uncertainty

Brigid F. Leahy, Director of Public Policy,
Planned Parenthood of Illinois

We are living in a time of unprecedented attacks on women’s health care. Donald Trump has promised to appoint anti-abortion U.S. Supreme Court justices. Congress has vowed to repeal the Affordable Care Act. Restrictions on family planning funding have been imposed. In the first three months of 2017, 31 abortion restrictions were enacted in the states. Where does this leave women and how can we in Illinois protect access to health care?

Patriotism – Patriotic – Patriot

Penny Wollan-Kriel

As Independence Day approaches, let us look at what it means or might mean to be a patriot – or patriotic – or express patriotism. Penny Wollan-Kriel will coordinate the service.
