Recalculating: Using the GPS as a Guide for Whole Hearted Living

Robyn Berkley, Ph.D.

Dr. Robyn Berkley is an Associate Professor of Management at SIUE in the School of Business. She identifies as a Buddhist-Unitarian and is a member of First Unitarian Church of Alton. Using the current technology for finding our way as a metaphor, Dr. Berkley will look at how we travel the highway of life.

This will be a "Change for Change Sunday".

UUs & Civil Rights After Selma

Rev. Martin Woulfe

Many know the story of the social justice work of the early Unitarian Universalist denomination, especially during the events of Selma in 1965. How did those events help define the future course of UUism?

Daylight Savings starts in the morning, so spring forward one hour.

Christ & Antichrist

Rev. Martin Woulfe

The terms Christ and Anti-Christ have been around for nearly two millennia and have gained a broad circulation in the larger culture. What exactly do these designations mean? How has it changed with the passage of time and cultures? How do they relate to politics?

Spring begins. Palm Sunday.

The Life & Morals of Jesus of Nazareth

Rev. Martin Woulfe

On this Easter Sunday, we will consider the character and teachings of Jesus, as revealed in "The Jefferson Bible." This important religious work was the result of a collaboration between two of the foremost Unitarians of the 19th century, Thomas Jefferson and Joseph Priestley.

Life Before and After Exoneration: The Impact of Wrongful Conviction on the Innocent

Larry Golden and Teshome Campbell

The Illinois Innocence Project has focused on obtaining release of innocent people from long-term incarceration. But how does that wrongful conviction and ultimate release impact on those individuals? The Project's latest exoneree, Teshome Campbell, who spent 18 years in prison, although innocent, will join Founding Director Larry Golden to share some thoughts on this critical challenge.

Pledge Drive Sunday.
